We are pleased to report positive proceeds from the 2023 Cincy-Cinco as in every other Cincy-Cinco. We are very proud of this sustained achievement. These proceeds are possible thanks to the generous support of many sponsors. They not only allowed us to put on a first-rate event but also permitted us to achieve very satisfactory proceeds with grants to more than a dozen organizations, primarily in the Health Care and Education fields.

19TH CINCY-CINCO LATINO FESTIVAL

MORE "FUN AND DELICIOUS" THAN EVER

(From Porkopolis to Tacópolis)

The Hispanic Chamber Cincinnati Foundation organized the 2023 19th Cincy-Cinco Latino Festival, a unique festival featuring authentic Latino food with colorful and delicious flavors from a Colombian arepa, a Puerto Rican mofongo, Mexican Tacos, a Spanish paella, a Honduran ceviche, and much more. All are presented by almost a dozen local and regional restaurants. Fun and Delicious!

Entertainment, music & dancing from the most notable performers in the Midwest will fill downtown Cincinnati with family fun, folkloric performances, and evenings full of salsa dancing.

Some of the other attractions were the children's area. Saturday afternoon was dedicated to the young children with games, raffles, piñatas, and a parade with all of Cincinnati's favorite mascots.

This year, the HCCUSA Foundation received a special gift/donation from Cynthia Ellis Stewart and her husband, Frank Hale Stewart, during the 19th Cincy-Cinco Latino Festival on May 6, 2023, Diego Rivera's Mother and Child.

This painting represents Cynthia and Frank's love for Mexico and Cincinnati. It was dedicated in 2021 to Cincinnati's Hispanic-American Community from the Cynthia Ellis Stewart and Frank Hale Stewart family.

Gracias to the many organizations like the City of Cincinnati, 3CDC, and our friends at Riverbend Music Center for making it possible to deliver a delightful event for all. Above all, thanks to our Platinum Sponsors, P&G, the Kroger Company, and all our sponsors for their support. We could only have put together a quality event year in and year out with their full support.

Since its inception (19 years ago), proceeds from this Charity Festival have exceeded $543,000, distributed among organizations for their Latino programs.
